for a Speech There on Monday.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 27.—A charge that former President Theodore Roosevelt had done "an illegal thing in order to build up an irresistible power" in permitting the purchase by the United States Steel corporation of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company was made in a speech here today by Governor Woodrow Wilson.

"I do not wonder Colonel Roosevelt thinks trusts are inevitable," said the governor. "He never found any way of checking them and he thought it was inevitable that the steel corporation should buy the Tennessee Coal and Iron company and that the president should consent to an illegal thing in order to build up an irresistible power. If it is inevitable that the government should yield to those powers, the sooner we know it the better."

The governor made several references in his speech to Colonel Roosevelt, declaring that if he were re-elected he would have "no third party congress" behind him.

While in the city the governor expressed regret that he would not have time to visit Harvard university. He said he was deeply pleased that President Emeritus Eliot of Harvard had issued a statement in support of his candidacy. It is probable that Governor Wilson will speak again at Lawrence, Lowell, and Cambridge on his way to Maine and Vermont in later days of the campaign.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Governor Wilson will leave New York on October 2 for a western trip which will take him as far as Denver. ## LOVE OF FINERY CAUSES YOUNG WOMAN'S ARREST

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Love of finery led to the arraignment in police court today of a beamingly garbed young woman who said she was Miss Frances Hollander, pupil at a Baltimore convent. She added that her parents lived in Chicago, that she had wealthy relatives in Massachusetts, a chum school girl in Roanoke, Va., with this she hoped to have dismissed the charge of obtaining clothes without paying for them.

Miss Hollander was arrested last night on complaint of a tailor who recognized her, he told the police, as the customer who obtained two gowns and a coat and disappeared without paying for them.

The girl refused to give the address of her parents. She is 24 years old and has been staying at one of the best hotels.

Millionaire Loses Fortune and Then Commits Suicide

JANESVILLE, Wis., Sept. 27.—Edward Leonard Dwyer, who rose from head of a street cleaning gang in Chicago to be a multi-millionaire, blew out his brains here today in the street. Dwyer had just given some small change, the last cent he had, to a tramp.

Dwyer was a member of the Chicago Board of Trade. He amassed wealth, but lost it in an attempt to corner wheat. He retrieved his fortunes by development of silver mines in Mexico and was rated a millionaire when he went to New York and on Wall street again became poor. In 1896 he married the Duchess de Castellani, widow of an Italian duke who left her $7,000,000. His wife soon died, leaving him the remnants of her fortune and several islands off the coast of Maine. He sold them and lost the proceeds in speculation, being adjudged a bankrupt in New York in 1899.

From then Dwyer's luck failed. He enlisted in the navy in an attempt to reach China to share in the development of that country but he returned to America broken in health and spirits. He spent his last few dollars entertaining some friends in Chicago before he started to Janesville.

"Here's to fame and a busted name. 'Tonight we dine, tomorrow I die,' is said to have been his toast, drunk in his last glass of wine before he walked out of his hotel with just enough money to get him to Janesville and leave a few dime over, which he tossed to a tramp five minutes before he shot himself.

Mine Promoters Get One Million Dollars from Rich and Poor

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 27.—While Postal Inspector Clement is searching the west for James and R. F. McNichols to serve them with warrants charging misuse of the mails in promoting Oregon and Idaho mines, details of their operations in northern Ohio brought to light today showed that rich and poor alike bought the $1,000,000 in stock the brothers are said to have distributed and on which hundreds of buyers claim to have lost heavily.

Among these were some of the wealthiest and best known Clevelanders. Frank A. Arter, whose family is prominently interested in Standard Oil; Terry Ball, Jr., brother-in-law of George W. Perkins; Vaughn Glaser, the actor; and Terry Turner, the Cleveland third baseman, all of whom invested heavily, probably will be called before the grand jury which will investigate the case.

It is learned today that when a month or so before he was to die, Johann Hoch, the Chicago wife murderer, made a public appeal for $1,000 for a final fight to escape the death penalty. James McNichols went to Chicago with his bride a week and gave Hoch the thousand.

Two-Cent Fare Law Held Confiscatory in One Illinois Case

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 27.—The 2-cent passenger rate bill passed by the general assembly in 1907 was today declared unconstitutional as far as the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis Railroad company was concerned on the ground that it was confiscatory in not producing enough revenue to compensate the owners of the railroad for the passenger service rendered by the public. Judge O. H. Humphrey of this city, A. L. Sanborn of Madison, Wis., and Francis E. Baker of Indianapolis signed a decree which makes perpetual the temporary injunction issued in 1909 by Judge Humphrey restraining Attorney General Stead and the state's attorneys in the counties through which the railroad passes from enforcing the law. The decision does not affect any other railroad in the state.

Judges Humphrey, Sanborn and Baker in November, 1911, sat here and heard the objections of the state to the report of Master in Chancery Walter M. Allen in which he reported that he found that the 2-cent rate was confiscatory as regards this railroad.

The state will take an appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals.

Beachey, Lillie, Miss Vinson and others take part in the four days' aviation next week, while next Friday and Saturday will be devoted to automobile racing sanctioned by the American Automobile association.

ORTIE M'ANIGAL IS TAKEN TO INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—Ortie E. McManigal, in custody of Malcolm McLaren, one of Detective William J. Burns' assistants, and two guards, arrived in this city from Los Angeles today to be the government's chief witness in the trial of the so-called dynamiting conspiracy cases in federal cases in the federal court, beginning next Tuesday.

McManigal was taken to the federal building, where two rooms had been furnished for his occupancy during the trial. Guards were set at the doors and agents of the Department of Justice said every precaution would be taken against possible interference with McManigal's testimony.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Emma McManigal, wife of Ortie E. McManigal, today filed suit for separate maintenance. A year ago she filed suit for absolute divorce, which has been pending ever since. She charges cruelty.

French Armada of Air Makes Great Display

PARIS, Sept. 27.—The first review ever held of a complete aeroplane armada took place this morning at Villacoublay, near Paris. Seventy-two French army flying machines, with their full complements of pilots and observers and the attached park of motor trucks bearing supplies, were paraded in review before the French minister of war, Alexandre Millerand.

The airman and their craft had just returned from the great army maneuvers, at which they had achieved many triumphs, and made an imposing display when they lined up on the parade ground.

Thousands of people were present and there was great enthusiasm as the airman saluted the minister of war. At the close of the review M. Millerand made a speech in which he dwelt on the and the nation's determination to keep France in the forefront of aviation. He urged the officers to refrain from seeking publicity, which he said, could only be harmful to the service.

Girl Pours Gasoline on Kitchen Fire

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Miss Mattie Deppie, aged 20 years, was seriously and perhaps fatally burned today and the home of her father, Fred Deppie, was totally destroyed when the young woman poured kerosene on the kitchen fire to hasten the blaze. IDA GROVE, Ia., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—When D. W. Middleworth of Mt. Airy left here with his bride, Mrs. Mable Reed, the village jokers changed the checks on their trunk, and put them on an empty trunk going to Denison. The result was that when the bride and groom reached Des Moines they had an empty trunk instead of their own and had to give up a two weeks' wedding trip. The railroad was asked for heavy damages, and the railroad in turn will prosecute to the limit the guilty ones if they can be found.

WANDER DOWN HIGHWAY

Pattering Rain Does Not Dampen
Ardoir of Revelers.

POLICE TO PROTECT CROWDS

Large Squads to Be Placed at All Intersections to Keep Thousands of Sightseers from Being Injured.

In spite of the fact that a heavy rain was falling part of the forenoon and afternoon quite a number of persons could not resist the temptation of spending a half hour on the King's Highway. So as the rain pattered on the pavement many strolled around on the curbside grounds beneath raised umbrellas and enjoyed the various exhibits. The shows were popular as they provided shelter.

In order that spectators of the various parades during the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities will be safe from injury, Police Chief Dunn has issued orders for the patrolling of the streets along which the parade will pass. There will be seventy-three patrolmen on foot and a squad of thirteen mounted policemen.

At the Crossings.
At the corners of intersections there will be at least two patrolmen. All will wear white vests and white gloves. At the corner of Fifteenth and Farnam streets nine patrolmen will be stationed two at each curb corner and one in the street.

At Sixteenth and Farnam streets ten patrolmen will be stationed. When a parade has passed a certain corner the patrolmen will leave and move to another corner at which place the parade has not passed.

The thirteen mounted policemen will be in charge of Lieutenant Thomas Hayes. The squad will move about 100 feet in advance of the parade and clear the streets.

At police headquarters all the motorcycle officers will be kept for emergency purposes as will two doctors and the emergency automobile and the ambulance. The orders which were issued by Chief Dunn will hold good at all parades and the same men will be used to keep the crowd back from the line of parade and to avoid all possible injury to the spectators.

Drug-Crazed Negro Holds Police at Bay During Entire Night

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 27.—After being held at bay all night by a drug crazed negro, Louisville police early today rushed the black's barricade and captured him before he could make further resistance.

The prisoner, Ed Jackson, was arrested last night on a trivial charge. He escaped, took refuge in a house in the negro quarter and began firing at pedestrians and street cars. One of the policemen sent to arrest him was dangerously wounded. The riot call was sounded, but when police and citizens reached Jackson's retreat, he had barricaded himself so securely and directed such an effective rifle fire at his pursuers that they were obliged to fight at long range.

For two hours they exchanged shots with the black. Then firing ceased, and the police awaited the coming of daylight. The rush on his barricade took Jackson by surprise and he surrendered, although well supplied with ammunition.

When the police gained entrance to the house, they found two other negroes with Jackson. One of them, who attempted to rush the police was shot down. He was badly wounded. It is believed the two men were in the house when Jackson took refuge there and that he compelled them to help him in his fight.

Women Who Buy Can Aid Enforcing Sanitary Food Laws

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Most of the pure food work of the future lies with the women who do the buying, asserted Dr. H. E. Barnard, Indiana food commissioner, today before the fifteenth international congress on hygiene and demography. With sanitary food laws on statute books, work of the state food commission, he said, would be largely one of educating people to demand sanitary food conditions and to report filth at the corner grocery.

If there is any fault with cold storage it is financial and economic, not hygienic, said Dr. Herbert D. Pease of New York. It was a mistake, he said, to believe that the only advantage of cold storage was in cornering the market on eggs and poultry. He recommended hard freezing as opposed to the chilled process as the more hygienic.

MAN ARRESTED FOR BIG BANK ROBBERY AFTER LONG CHASE

Year's Pursuit Ends in St. Louis,
When J. C. Adams is Taken by Police.

IDENTIFICATION IS COMPLETED

Thief Held Since Wednesday Also Known as Stacey.

OTHERS INVOLVED IN BIG JOB

Three Hundred Thousand Stolen from Canadian Bank.

WOMAN COMPANION IS ARRESTED

Suspect, Who Gives Name of Adams, is Identified as the Man Who Shot a Chicago Policeman
Last Week.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 27.—A year's chase, following the $200,000 bank robbery in New Westminster, B. C., ended in St. Louis in the arrest of J. C. Adams, who was declared today to be wanted as one of the robbers.

The arrest of his supposed wife, known to the police as Jeanette Little, in Edwardsville, Ill., last night completed the task of the local police and private detectives, who have been holding Adams since his arrest early Wednesday morning.

Adams, who is also known as Walter Stacey, was declared by the detectives to have been one of the two men who beat Police Lieutenant Burns of Chicago into insensibility in a saloon, where he tried, single handed, to capture them on the night of September 19.

When Adams was arrested by the St. Louis police he was entered on the books under the name of Stacey and a charge of murder placed against him. It was explained that he was a suspect in a local case. Mystery was thrown about his arrest by the St. Louis police Wednesday and Thursday.

Identified in Chicago.
In the meantime, his photograph, taken a few hours after his arrest, was sent to Chicago. There it was identified Thursday as one of the two assailants of Lieutenant Burns.

At the time of the man's arrest the detectives could have arrested his woman companion, who was walking on the street ahead of him. They hoped that by leaving her at liberty longer they would catch another of the gang, so she was not molested at that time, but was kept under surveillance until she left the city Thursday evening on an interurban car.

A man met her at Edwardsville, Ill., and went to a hotel. The two were arrested at 11 p. m. Thursday, but, according to the detectives, the man was found to be not the one wanted and was released.

Jeanette Little, or Mrs. Stacey, as she gave her name at a rooming house, told her landlady that she was a cripple and at times walked with the aid of crutches. At other times when she wanted to make speed, she discarded the crutches.

In Adams or Stacey's clothes a letter was found which stated that the bearer was deaf and dumb. The police said that the crutches and the deaf and dumb letter were used as subterfuges in obtaining admittance to banks where prospects for a robbery were good.

Detectives Trail Woman.
Detectives said the arrest of the woman was the key to the situation. She was located by Acting Chief Schuster of Chicago and a private detective in Ellkhart, Ind., where she disguised herself as a member of a religious order and pretended to be lame.

When she left Ellkhart four men trailed her to St. Louis and to a rooming house, where a man met her. It was when the man and the woman left the house that the man was arrested and the woman was allowed to depart only to be arrested last night.

The man arrested as Adams or Stacey, is believed by the local Bertillon official to be George West, reputed leader of the Canadian bank robbery. The detectives said they knew him only as Adams, or Stacey.

All requests for interviews with the prisoners were denied.

Not One of the Principals

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 27.—J. C. Adams, arrested in St. Louis, according to the detective directing the search is not Al Addison, alias Albert Anderson, the last of the trio believed to have committed the actual robbery of the New Westminster bank.

Addison was Charles Dean's partner in
